

DUTIES AND PRIVILEGES OF EDOC MEMBERS

(January 2016)

DUTIES OF EDOC MEMBERSHIP

- Volunteer for club sponsored events or positions:
 1. Obedience Trials in June – Trial Chair, Trial Secretary, Trial Trophy Chair, Trial Hospitality, Trial Raffle Chair, Trial Chief Ring Steward, Trial Ring Steward, Trial set up and/or tear down.
 2. Tracking Test in April – Test Chair/Secretary, Hospitality, Tracklayer, Chief Tracklayer, Driver
 3. TDX Tests in May & Oct - Test Chair/Secretary, Hospitality, Tracklayer, Cross-tracklayer, Chief Tracklayer, Driver
 4. VST Test in Dec - Test Chair/Secretary, Hospitality, Tracklayer
 5. Nose Work ORT and Trials, as scheduled – Chair, Vice-Chair, Volunteer Coordinator, Hospitality
 6. Demonstrations (throughout year) – Chair, organize and/or work
 7. Training Classes (throughout year) – Training Director, Instructor, Assistant instructor, CGC Evaluator
 8. Seminars (occasionally) – Organize; worker
 9. Training Building: Building Manager, Cleaning, Maintenance
 10. Serve in other club positions: Officer, Board Member, Newsletter, Webmaster, TLC Chair, Membership Chair, Library Chair, Awards Chair; Brunch Chair; Picnic Chair; Holiday Party Chair; Meeting Program Chair, Tracking Coordinator
- Attend regular meetings in the months of January, March, May, July, October, and December with full voting privileges (except Associate Members).

PRIVILEGES OF EDOC MEMBERSHIP

- Individual, family and associate members will receive the club's Newsletter. All members will also have access to Members Only portion of Club's website. The Newsletter is mailed to those without or with limited internet service.

Full Membership Privileges (i.e., do not apply to Associate Members)

- Members' dogs are eligible for inclusion in the club's "Wall of Fame" for dog earning UD or TDX or VST titles or NW3tmElite titles.
- Members are eligible for a Memorial Donation to be made by EDOC to selected, dog oriented charitable organizations for the loss of a household or canine family member.
- Member may be eligible for enrollment in training classes at reduced rate. Schedule of reduced class rate is as follows:
 - New member: $\frac{3}{4}$ public class fee for first year of membership.
 - Member, after first year of membership, $\frac{1}{2}$ public class fee
 - Instructor – for each class serving as an instructor earn one class at no charge.
 - Member that serves as Trial Chair, Trial Secretary, Test Secretary, Judge, Board Member, Officer, Training Director, Building Manager, – four class sessions at no charge in year of service (unused carried to following year).
- Members are eligible to borrow books and tapes from the club library.

- Members are eligible to rent club equipment for a nominal fee. Make request to the Board.
- Members are eligible to rent the training building at a nominal fee. Use must be personal in nature, not related to dog training instruction for a fee to the public, nor any function that member would collect an admission or any other kind of fee for member or non-member attendance. Rental agreement and liability waivers will be required. Make request to the Board.
- Members become eligible to be a training building key holder after two years of membership. Member will make request to become a key holder to the board. Member will pay a non-refundable key fee ($100.00 at this time) if approved.
- Members are eligible to receive awards at January meeting for AKC titles your dog(s) earns during prior year. A certificate only will be awarded for non-AKC titles.
- Members are eligible to use the training building to train individually (i.e. not as part of a scheduled class) with a key holder without payment of a “drop-in” fee.

Associate Membership Privileges

- Associate members will receive the newsletter, and have access to the Members Only portion of the Club’s website
- Associate members will pay public class fee rate.
- Associate members must pay a “drop-in” fee if using the training building to train individually with a key holder